

Jutai

Durability class	Class 1-2.
Applications	Jutai hardwood is suitable for furniture, floors , facades , panelling and is often used decoratively because of the beautiful veins.
Specific gravity	Freshly cut 950-1200 kg / m3. At 12% moisture content from 750 to 900 kg / m3.
Colour	Jutai wood has a dark reddish brown colour.
Details	This wood has a beautiful fine pattern.
Grain	Straight, sometimes irregular threads and light cross-thread.
Timber texture	Fine to moderately coarse.
Stability	Average.
Drying	Jutai wood dries slowly.
Workability	Fairly easy to work with and finish.
Screwing/nailing	Pre-drilling is necessary for Jutai hardwood.
Botanical name	Martiodendron parviflorum
Origin area	Tropical Central America and South America.
Background information	This tropical wood is often confused with Jatoba hardwood.